

COMMUNITY INVOLVEMENT

The Brownwood branch participated in a bowl painting fundraiser for the Good Samaritan Empty Bowl Project!

The Big Spring branch donated the Western Wednesday to Lane Lusk Sanchez Texas State Veterans Home.

They purchased a grill and delivered it to them!

Anna volunteered at the annual World's Largest BBQ hosted by the Military Affairs Committee (MAC), which she's on. This was the 54th year the MAC has shown Abilene's appreciation for the sacrifices those in military uniforms and their families make everyday. More than 200 volunteers serve free BBQ lunch or dinner to anywhere from 3,000-4,000 people.

The Abilene branch did their quarterly cleanup for Keep Abilene Beautiful. They picked up 8 bags of trash. Those who participated were Esther, Mary, Jared, Annette, Liz & Anna (taking picture).

Jared Bailey volunteered for the Taste of Abilene. With the money raised, they give it back to many of the local non profits in Abilene that are in need of financial support.

Connie Westfall - far right - of Brownwood branch attended the ribbon cutting for DaVita Brownwood.

Ribbon Cutting Held for DaVita Brownwood

The Brownwood Area Chamber of Commerce held a ribbon cutting on Thursday, February 28th to welcome new member DaVita Brownwood.

Brownwood Chamber Held Ribbon Cutting for Harvest Family Life Ministries

The Brownwood Area Chamber of Commerce held a ribbon cutting on Friday, April 5th for new member Harvest Family Life Ministries.

The Harvest House is located at 610 Beaver Street. The house was gifted by Edna and Ira Morris to Aaron and Mary Blake in 2004. The Harvest House is a Foster Youth Placement Home with the purpose to address the needs of foster youth in CPS care as they navigate their journey to stability that leads to a forever family. It is open to the community for small group meetings, bridal and baby showers as well as outdoor events.

Lubbock hosted Leadership Lubbock during their Lubbock Day. Our very own John Weddige is a participant, Chris Coke is a leader and our customer Lindley Herring is the Chairman of the Leadership Lubbock Committee.

Lubbock volunteered at the Lubbock Chamber's Uncorked event.

What a GREAT year Texas Tech Basketball had this year!
